ORDER

This matter is before the court on a letter from defendant and filing of exemptions form and request for hearing. Specifically, defendant objects to the garnishment of his retirement accounts held at Edward Jones. The court finds defendant's court-ordered restitution is due and payable immediately and accordingly, the United States has statutory authority to collect it from defendant's non-exempt assets, including by way of garnishment, until the debt is paid in full.

Additionally, none of the statutory issues necessitating a hearing are present here, therefore, the request for hearing is DENIED. Defendant's objections are rejected.
